

Seeds of Strength (SoS) is a philanthropic women's giving circle in which members come together to enrich lives in the Georgetown community. We welcome all women who want to participate in the power of collective philanthropy. The only requirement for new members and renewing members is an annual contribution and completion of the membership form.

Member Involvement (Please check all that apply)

- I am interested in volunteering with a Committee. Please contact me to discuss options (additional information can also be found on our website: www.SeedsOfStrength.org).
- I may need to carpool to SoS events. Please contact me.
- I do not use email and would like you to call me or send me a letter to notify me about events.
- I would like to be contacted about planned giving and contribution to the SoS endowment for members or non-members.
- Please email us at: membership@seedsofstrength.org if you have referrals or opportunities for Seeds of Strength to help increase awareness in our community.

Please make check payable to: Chisholm Trail Communities Foundation (CTCF)^{*} and write SoS on the memo line. If you will be making your contribution from an investment account, please ensure that your name is documented on the check.

To pay by credit card go to: <https://chisholm-trail.org/donate/>

Mail your check to: Seeds of Strength, c/o CTCF, 116 West 8th Street, Suite 203, Georgetown, TX 78626

Once your membership has been processed you will receive a receipt from CTCF, and you will be added to our email distribution to begin receiving our messages and announcements.
